

Tulare Local Healthcare District

December 8, 2022

The Tulare Local Healthcare District has released Chief Executive Officer, Philip Smith, after completion of his one year contract and thanks him for his many services to advance the District's efforts and financial stability.

The District has the ability to look to its two existing consultants, Sandra Ormonde and Randy Dodd, to play a part in providing interim CEO services as the District conducts its recruitment for a permanent appointee. When available, information on how to apply for the position will be posted on the District's website, www.tularelocalhealthcaredistrict.org, and will be available in hardcopy at the District's administrative offices, located at 842 N. Gem Street, Tulare, Ca. 93274.
